TERMS OF ADMISSION.

CANDIDATES for admission to the Freshman class are examined in Geography, Ancient and Modern; Arithmetic; Algebra, through Simple Equations; English, Latin, and Greek Grammar, including Prosody; Cæsar's Commentaries (four books,) or Sallust; Virgil, (six books of the Æneid;) Cicero's Select Orations; Arnold's Latin Prose Composition, (xii chapters;) Xenophon's Anabasis*; the Gospels in the Greek Testament; Arnold's Greek Prose Composition, (20 §§;) or other authors fully equivalent in quantity to the above.

Candidates for advanced standing are also examined in the studies gone over by the class which they propose to enter; but no Student will be admitted to the Senior Class after the beginning of the second session.

Testimonials of good moral character are in all cases required; and those coming from other Colleges must produce certificates of dismission in good standing.

No Student is considered a regular member of College, until, after a probation of thirty days, he has been matriculated, during which time he is subject to the laws of the College.

By a resolution of the Board of Trustees every Student is required to sign a pledge that, during his College course, he will have no connection with any secret society without previous permission of he Faculty.

In the Classical Department the Grammars used are Andrews and Stoddard's Latin, and Crosby's Greek; the Lexicons, Andrews's Latin, and Liddell and Scott's Greek. Eschenburg's Manual is used as a text-book in Greek and Roman Antiquities.

* The Greek Reader will be accepted for the Anabasis.

Besides the declamations in the Classes, there is a public exercise every Thursday morning in the Chapel, at which all the Classes speak by divisions, and for which they are prepared by private rehearsal before the Professor of Rhetoric. Seniors deliver Original Compositions.

Instruction is given in Hebrew gratuitously to all who desire it.

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The College year is divided into three Terms or Sessions. The Annual Commencement is on the last Wednesday of July, and the first term of the next College year begins six weeks after, and continues fourteen weeks. A vacation of four weeks follows, after which the second term begins, and continues thirteen weeks. The last session commences on Thursday, twelve weeks preceding the Annual Commencement.

For the calendar for the present Collegiate year, see page 12.

ATTENDANCE.

Students are required to be present punctually at the commencement of each Session, and are not allowed during term time to be absent from town, except by written permission from the President or Faculty.

All the Students are required to attend Divine Service in one of the Presbyterian Churches in the borough on Sabbath Morning, (unless permitted by the Faculty to attend another Church,) and in the Chapel in the Afternoon.

A record is kept of the punctuality, diligence, scholarship, and general behaviour of each student; a report of which is sent to the parent or guardian at the close of each session.

EXAMINATIONS.

All the Classes are examined at the close of the first and second Sessions; the Senior Class is examined six weeks before Commencement; the three lower classes the week preceding Commencement, when it is the duty of a committee appointed by the Synod of Philadelphia to be present.

LOCATION.

The College is situated in the borough of Easton, Pa., fifty-five miles North from Philadelphia, and seventy-two miles West from New York. With those cities there is communication two or three times daily, (Sundays excepted,) by Railroad. Fare from $1 50 to $1 75. There is also Railroad communication with the Northern Counties of Pennsylvania, and with Western New York, by means of the Belvidere Delaware, and the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroads; and with Central Pennsylvania, by the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

EXPENSES.

Students are permitted to select their place of boarding, at private houses, or in clubs. The price of board in clubs is $1 25 to $2 00 per week. No student is permitted to board at a public hotel, and in all cases the place of boarding must be approved by the Faculty.

Tuition, Room Rent, and Servants' Wages must be paid each Session in advance, and no student is permitted to recite until the receipt of the Treasurer is obtained. The Matriculation or Admission Fee is paid thirty days after entering College. Students obtain washing at about one dollar per month. Students will require some money for Books and Stationery, and other incidental expenses, but it is strongly recommended to Parents to furnish them with little beyond what will meet their necessary expenses. Students provide their own furniture, fuel and lights.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

There are two Literary Societies in the College—the Washington and the Franklin—which have spacious and well-furnished halls. Each Society has also an extensive and valuable library.

The Brainerd Evangelical Society holds its anniversary and has a public address on Sabbath Evening preceding Commencement.

On the day preceding Commencement, an oration is delivered before the Literary Societies; and one before the Society of the Alumni. The Junior Exhibition takes place on Monday evening preceding Commencement.

LIBRARY.

The College Library is open Wednesdays and Saturdays, at 9 A. M.; that of the Franklin Society on Saturday Afternoon; of the Washington Society on Thursday Morning; and of the Brainerd Society at their regular meetings.

GRATUITOUS INSTRUCTION.

All young men of good talents who are seeking the ministry, and who are well prepared for College, will receive their tuition at a reduced rate, or gratuitously if their circumstances require it; and the Trustees design that no young man of good character and talents shall be excluded from the benefits of this Institution, on account of his inability to pay for the instruction it furnishes.

PLAN OF ENDOWMENT.

1. One Hundred Dollars paid shall entitle the subscriber to the tuition of all his sons, without further charge in the College;* or, instead of his own sons, those of any family he may designate; and for every additional hundred dollars which the same individual may pay, he shall have the privilege of designating the sons of any family he may think proper to receive tuition in the College as above.

2. Five Hundred Dollars, paid by an individual, an association of individuals, or by a congregation, shall entitle the individual, association, or session of a church or congregation to a perpetual scholarship, to which the party may appoint any individual they may select; and the scholarship may be devised by will as any other property. The incumbent on any of the scholarships is subject, of course, to all the rules and regulations of the College, as well as the discipline.

3. The Trustees bind themselves and their successors, that the funds thus contributed shall never be used for purposes inconsistent with the views of Christian truth now entertained by the Synod of Philadelphia, in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

* The regular tuition fees for one student, for a full course, are ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY DOLLARS.

4. The Synod of Philadelphia has the sole right by the charter to nominate all the Trustees and Members of the Faculty, and to appoint a Board of Visitors from their own number to attend all examinations, and to that body the Trustees are bound to report annually the condition of the College. Subscribers and donors therefore have a guaranty that the Institution will always be wisely governed, and supplied with able and faithful instructors and officers, and that no religious instruction will be given in the College inconsistent with the Standards of the Presbyterian Church.
